THE HYBRID

Work with a Creator who blurs the line between Athlete and Academician, Thinker and Doer, Young Energy and an Old Soul.

Equal parts Motivational Speaker, Creator, and Athlete, my 'I CHOOSE THIS' philosophy highlights the strength every individual has to influence the outcome of their lives. From the mindset they hold as they encounter challenge to the products or services they choose to use. I believe in the authentic portrayal of life and the athlete story, and always integrate this within all of my messages.

VISION

THE ATHLETE

Avid long-distance runner with a focus in Half Marathon (PR: 1:22:48). Through running & fitness, I tell the story of encountering the raw, authentic self and the growth & joy that comes from 'choosing' to encounter this self.

He leads a weekly run club with regular attendance of 20+ where he reinforces a message of authenticity, community, and “going far together.”

Upcoming Races (subject to +/- races):

Surf City Half Marathon - February 4, 2024

OC Half Marathon - May 5, 2024

Napa to Sonoma Half Marathon - July 21, 2024

SurfCity10 - September 15, 2024

Long Beach Marathon - October 6, 2024

MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

YOU WERE MEANT TO BECOME IT.”

He is the youngest member of the internationally recognized Absolute Motivation team. His words have been played over 1,200,000x and has spoken at universities, private masterminds, and church congregations. His signature message topics include:

- Self-Discipline

- Overcoming Limiting Beliefs
- Finding Motivation to Change
- Encountering the “Raw Self”

BRAND PARTNERSHIPS

Beyond the standard "ambassador", I will provide thorough brand audits for any brand I partner with and seek to provide tangible ROI for companies who choose to invest in me. I believe in growing the community through actively engaging other ambassadors and understand that I am an extension of your brand as much as you are an extension of mine.
